

Due to the computer based nature of this project, there exists a risk of developing repetitive strain injuries (RSI) due to prolonged use. To mitigate this risk, the following measures were being taken:

- Regular breaks
- Peripherals will be positioned at a comfortable distance to reduce strain.
- The chair will be positioned at a comfortable height to reduce back strain.
- Work in a well-lit room to reduce eye strain.